

PINK IMAGE™

The Integrative Breast Health Medical Clinic is holistic medicine that incorporates breast thermography with eastern medicine, western medicine, hormone therapy, eastern and western nutrition with an all organic bath and body boutique. This unique medical clinic provides each patient with an all encompassing treatment protocol.

Thermography can detect an imbalance in breast health before there is a manifestation of disease. Many women come to the clinic with an intuition or feeling. Many times this concern is detectable with thermography which no other test can detect. In other words YOUR health concerns will be heard and may even be detected with thermography. Our group of physicians work together to provide each patient with the highest level of care from all the medical modalities available in order to ensure holistic treatment.

Wendy Sellens L.Ac WABT-BTI is the breast thermography interpreter, researcher and lead physician at the clinic. She studied extensively with the creator of the breast thermography interpretation model renowned breast cancer surgeon, and leading researcher in breast thermography, William Hobbins M.D, and is his protégée. She has been conducting studies at Pink Image for the last 6 years specializing in hormones and their effects on the breasts. With this strong background she has created this unique medical clinic and has written the first book about breast thermography, its benefits and how to reduce the risk of breast cancer from years of studying with Dr. Hobbins.

Wendy Sellens has also founded the following.

Wendy's background has allowed her to open the first one of its kind - a breast boutique. This ground breaking medical clinic integrates holistic medicine, hormone balance and breast thermography to test and treat women's health issues. She is currently conducting several pilot studies on breast risk and hormone balance with breast thermography.

Her pilot studies, research and clinical experience have provided evidence to show what is increasing breast risk and hormone imbalances in women. This unique experience has allowed her to educate women along with the correct treatment method for them. You are welcome to become a patient or simply read the book and practice the easy to follow tips in the comfort of your own home.

Wendy also specializes in orthopedic acupuncture and sports medicine along with esthetics. Patients truly experience a holistic environment at her medical clinic. Patients can optimize their health at this unique medical clinic and become the strongest, healthiest, most beautiful version of themselves.

Wendy is also a certified medical Qi gong instructor, esthetician and massage therapist for the past 14 years.

Brian Downum L.Ac is our clinic's leading Chinese medical physician, herbalist and nutritionist. He has been successfully treating Pink Image's breast thermography patients since 2009. He recognizes imbalances seen in breast thermograms and correlates this information with a detailed exam which involves an in-depth medical history and physical exam which includes abdomen palpation, skin, tongue and pulse analysis which detect imbalances before disease manifestation. He treats women's health issues and has resolved difficult cases that other doctors have not been able to solve or even recognize. At the clinic he focuses on women's health, but more importantly treats each patient's overall all general health, for anti-aging, and can address a patient's specific concern. His years of thermography experience and expertise in acupuncture, eastern and western nutrition, but especially herbal medicine has made him an integral and rare asset to any medical clinic. He is currently co-authoring Wendy Sellens's second book "Breast Cancer Boot Camp – The Estrogen Free Diet" and was medical editor on her first "Breast Cancer Boot Camp – Dr. Hobbins's Breast Thermography Revolution."

Born and raised in southern California, Brian saw his first glimpse into the Chinese arts while studying Chinese kung fu. After many years of studying martial arts, he was introduced to the art of Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) which led him to seek schooling in San Diego. Throughout his studies and internships, Brian received training in Chinese meridian theory, orthopedic acupuncture, herbal medicine, tui na, and qi gong .

Brian's passion is herbal medicine, so in 2005 he started his raw herb pharmacy that grew into his first practice, Jade Mountain Medicine. Later, In 2007 Brian co-owned Hidden Tiger Martial Arts where he taught classes and continued his martial arts training in praying mantis. In 2008, Brian became a welcome addition to the West Coast Wellness Center where his practice specializes in orthopedics, pain management and sports injury. Here, Brian works with orthopedic surgeons allowing for an extensive experience in the field of orthopedic acupuncture.

Dr. Carolyn Humphreys is a medically trained Naturopathic Doctor. She earned her Doctorate of Naturopathic Medicine from Bastyr University in the Seattle area in 2002. She completed a 2-year residency, and then started her private practice in the Seattle area. Dr. Humphreys has been practicing in San Diego since 2009 and is very happy she made the move.
